- VENUE: THE RIDING SCHOOL
- COST: £60 PER PERSON - FOR 3 COURSE DINNER, A DRINK ON ARRIVAL AND THE MURDER MYSTERY EXPERIENCE

8 JUNE @ 7:00 PM - 11:00 PM

It's Saturday night and members of the Hatfield Amateur Drama Society are excited to be opening their production of 'Alice in Wonderland' at the Barn Theatre in Welwyn Garden City. In anticipation they have rushed over to the pre-show party at Hatfield, so much so they've forgotten to take off their costumes from the final dress rehearsal.

The cast however are stopped in their tracks as a police officer arrives with tragic news. D.I Ruthford informs the cast that their beloved director has been found dead in the theatre and it's off with their heads for one of them!

Although these actors may appear shocked, these am-drammers are hiding more than their script behind the scenes. The white rabbit's pocket watch starts ticking and D.I Rutherford must solve the case before the final curtain falls.

Tonight, you are the detectives, and it's your job to crack the case before it's too late. Can you catch the killer?

Join Moonstone Theatre London and Hatfield House in the Riding School at 7pm for an evening packed with clues, plot-twists, suspicious suspects and surprises, complete with a 3 Course Dinner served from 8pm onwards. Dinner and drinks details to shortly follow.

6 JULY @ 7:00 PM - 11:00 PM

July 1938, the day after the annual academy awards show in Hollywood. The parties have been in full swing all night with winner celebrating and losers drowning their sorrows. However, all is not well in Tinseltown as one of last night's award winners is discovered murdered in a nearby hotel with his own award. But who would want to take out this Best Newcomer, and why? Police have narrowed down the suspects to the other four award nominees and, as luck would have it, master super sleuther Miss Jane Rutherford is nearby and has been asked to investigate.

Now as the martini's hangovers begin to kick in and Miss Rutherford's notepad is at the ready, the clock is ticking to crack the case. Which one of these actors is bitter from being shun from the spotlight? Who was the figure lurking in the shadows? All of this must be deduced, along with your help before the final credits roll. Join Moonstone Theatre London and Hatfield House in the Riding School at 7pm for an evening of Hollywood glamour, packed with clues, plot-twists, suspicious suspects and surprises, complete with a 3 Course Dinner served from 8pm onwards. BLACK DAY AT BLACKAWTON MANOR

MURDER MYSTERY DINING EXPERIENCE

- DATE: 5 OCTOBER
- TIME: 7:00 PM - 11:00 PM
- VENUE: THE RIDING SCHOOL
- COST: £60 PER PERSON - FOR 3 COURSE DINNER, A DRINK ON ARRIVAL AND THE MURDER MYSTERY EXPERIENCE

5 OCTOBER @ 7:00 PM - 11:00 PM

Join us at Hatfield House for another evening of excellent entertainment at the latest Murder Mystery Dining Experience.

In 1925, the country house of Blackawton Manor has been stood empty for some time, owned by James Warbuton, a successful music producer who escaped from 'the troubles' in Ireland. Shortly after arriving to Blackawton Manor, his wife Adrienne died in suspicious circumstances and Warbuton eloped to travel the world and recover, meeting his second wife, the young American jazz singer Charlotte Baker along the way. Tonight in October 1930, James returns once more to Blackawton Manor and has held a party in celebration of his return. What should be a joyous occasion has deteriorated into something of a nightmare as tensions begin to mount and hidden secrets are exposed. Perhaps the first Mrs Warburton has come to seek her revenge on Blackawton Manor? As the nights turn colder, all is not well in this home. An Inspector is on the case and tonight they seek your help to find out what happened that fateful day in 1925. But can you catch the killer?

Can you catch the killer? Join Moonstone Theatre London and Hatfield House in the Riding School at 7pm for an evening packed with clues, plot-twists, suspicious suspects and surprises, complete with a 3 Course Dinner served from 8pm onwards. Dinner and drinks details to shortly follow.
